New Show in Charlottesville

Show promoters Melrose & Duddy have announced plans for a new show to be held in Charlottesville, Virginia. Antiques in Charlottesville will be held January 22-24, 2010, at the University Center Holiday Inn in Charlottesville.

"We are confident our brand of show is a great fit for the Charlottesville market," said partner Jay Melrose. "We've already experienced a lot of warm support and encouragement from the community and commitments from antique and art dealers from throughout the Eastern Seaboard."

Antiques in Charlottesville will join the All Saints' Antiques Show, Rehoboth, Delaware, and Antiques & Gardening at Bryn Du, Granville, Ohio, in the Melrose & Duddy repertoire.

Antiques in Charlottesville will feature the popular Designer's Choice merchandise award program, ten-minute lectures, and other attractions still being finalized. More information is available at www.antiquesincharlottesville.com. Anyone interested in exhibiting at the show may call Jay Melrose at (330) 519-5132.

Information on Melrose & Duddy is available at www.melroseduddy.com.
